Designated contracting parties

Designated contracting parties:	CN-China	EM-European Union (EUIPO)
	JP-Japan	KR-Republic of Korea
	US-United States of America

Designated contracting parties remarks:

Japan's individual fees are payable in two parts. The first part of the individual fee is paid at the time of filing. The second part is paid only if Japan is satisfied that the mark of international registration qualifies for protection. The date and the amount due of the second part fees will be notified to the holder at a later stage.

By designating the United States of America, it is compulsory to complete the Declaration of Intention to use (MM18) screen. Note: in the United States one must confirm a trademark after five years. Learn more

The designation of the European Union covers its Member States (Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, The Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden) and, during a transition period, the United Kingdom.
By designating the EUIPO, the applicant can claim the seniority of an earlier mark registered in, or for, a Member State of the European Community.

DECLARATION OF INTENTION TO USE THE MARK: UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

By designating the United States in the international application/subsequent designation, the person signing below declares that:

- (1) the applicant/holder has a bona fide intention to use the mark in commerce that the United States Congress can regulate on or in connection with the goods/services identified in the international application/subsequent designation;
- (2) he/she is properly authorized to execute this declaration on behalf of the applicant/holder;
- (3) he/she believes applicant/holder to be entitled to use the mark in commerce that the United States Congress can regulate on or in connection with the goods/services identified in the international application/subsequent designation; and
- (4) to the best of his/her knowledge and belief no other person, firm, corporation, association, or other legal entity has the right to use the mark in commerce, either in the identical form thereof or in such near resemblance thereto as to be likely, when used on or in connection with the goods/services of such other person, to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive; and
- (5) to the best of the signatory's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances, the allegations and other factual contentions made above have evidentiary support.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that all the foregoing statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. I understand that willful false statements and the like may jeopardize the validity of the application or document or any registration resulting therefrom, and are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both (18 U.S.C. §1001). 35 U.S.C. §25(b).
